ALHAMBRA CUBE SPA

When arriving at Alhambra's Cube Spa, enjoy the Inhalation Bar, where the spa receptionist introduces you to the story of Lošinj Island's healing herbs and health benefits. This experience serves as a perfect introduction to further relaxation and recovery.

After that, it's time for a massage, where the spa therapist applies techniques using oils made from Aleppo pines, obtained from local producers for Cube Spa. Choose a 60 or 90 minute session, adjusting the treatment to your needs and wishes.

As the crown of the experience, we recommend a facial treatment with products from the world-famous Augustinus Bader brand. Our signature 60-minute facial uses 40 TFC8 ingredients combined with the Augustinus Bader method, an exquisite facial massage technique with a lifting effect. This treatment significantly reduces the signs of aging, protects against oxidative stress, and reduces uneven complexion and redness.

KURHAUS BAR FOR INHALATION

Since 1892, the Kurkomission has used this welcome station for those seeking healing on the island of Lošinj. Aristocrats and travelers flocked here to enjoy the famous Viennese coffee of the Quarnero Café and, more importantly, to inhale the "Kur" at the KURHAUS with fine mists of seawater and medicinal aerosols. We transformed this healing ritual so all guests could experience it at Cube Spa - an unforgettable experience fusing the past and the present.

SELECTED BY ALHAMBRA CUBE SPA

IMMUNITY MASSAGE WITH ALEPPO PINE (60 | 90 MIN)

Pine essences contain high levels of vitamin C and phyto-phenols that stimulate the production of white blood cells, increase the body's ability to absorb oxygen, strengthen the immune system, and protect against disease. We use potent essential pine oils from the Čikat Bay forest, with the option to choose a massage style, pressure, and depth according to your preferences.

AUGUSTINUS BADER TFC8 FACIAL TREATMENT (60 MIN)

Our signature facial treatment leaves the skin healthier, firmer and stronger, combining 40 TFC8 ingredients and the Augustinus Bader method, a facial massage technique that provides a sculptural lifting effect. This treatment remarkably reduces the signs of aging, fights oxidative stress, and reduces uneven skin tone and redness.
